Title: Better Together

In collaboration with Healthier Generation

Featured Topic Leader: : Daniel Hatcher

Director of Strategic Partnerships, Alliance for a Healthier Generation

This gathering and discussion will highlight collaborations across a variety of organizational types, with a focus on fostering improved youth health in communities. Featuring a new collaboration between Healthier Generation and ActivEnviro, we will highlight cross-sector partnerships between park and recreation professionals, preventive health researchers, and youth health and wellness leaders.

Topic Leader Bio: Daniel Hatcher is the Senior Director of Strategic Partnerships at the Alliance for a Healthier Generation where he has served since 2008. During his time at Healthier Generation, Daniel developed and led a national youth advisory board and helped create afterschool standards for healthy eating and physical activity. A nationally recognized workshop facilitator, he has spoken at education and youth development conferences in over 40 states. Previously, Daniel served as Director of Outreach at Youth Service America where he supported a youth advisory council and helped organize Global Youth Service Day. Daniel has a BA in International Relations and a Master of Public Health, both from Western Kentucky University. In 2022, Daniel was certified in Mental Health First Aid and became a certified Nature and Forest Therapy Guide.
